Dear Josh,

As a university President and a person with a long and deep interest in the public good, you will have some view on the subject of the enclosed letter to Sol Buchsbaum.

What is it?

It seems to me that we should be able to reach a consensus between those likely to want to receive the funds and those who would be giving the funds. At that point, what would be our prospects with the Administration and the Congress?

Do you think that I have a chance with this crusade? Is there a better alternative?

Best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Richard L. Garwin
